

Skiing in and Around Durango

---

S

With over 300 inches of snow and 300 days of sunshine every year, why would you ever ski anywhere else? In addition to the ski areas listed below, you'll find cross country trails, track skiing, sleigh rides, and of course, snowmobiling. We're the perfect spot for a romantic ski vacation in Durango.

Durango Mountain Resort

(970) 247-9000

www.durangomountainresort.com

Purgatory's terrain is 23% beginner, 51% intermediate, and 26% advanced / expert with 11 lifts including the new Purgatory Village Express high-speed, six person super chair.

The Columbine Beginners' Area, served by its own lifts, is easily accessible to the rest of the resort. The Columbine area has its own ticket office and restaurant, and gives first timers a fun and friendly arena for learning the in's and out's of skiing or snowboarding.

---

Wolf Creek Ski Area

(970) 264-5639

www.wolfcreekski.com

Wolf Creek is located in the beautiful San Juan/Rio Grande National Forest between Pagosa Springs and South Fork, CO and only 75 miles east of Durango, CO. One of Colorado's oldest and finest ski resorts. Our trademark is friendly employees and abundant, light powder snow.

Wolf Creek is a high alpine ski resort, 10,300 feet at the base and 11,900 feet at the summit. Wolf Creek offers six lifts servicing incredibly beautiful terrain and over 1,581 acres.

---

Silverton Mountain

(970) 387-5706

www.silvertonmountain.com

Get ready for a unique lift-served ski adventure! Silverton Mountain skiing is similar to a cross of heli-skiing experience, snow cat skiing, and resort skiing but really unlike anything else in the country. You will be accessing up to 1,819 acres of backcountry type terrain via chairlift and without the big crowds signature to other ski areas. There are no groomed runs, no cut trails, just loads of nature's finest black diamond skiing in the U.S.A.

---